

Cabin Fever Quilter's Quilt Show - APRIL 26, 2014 - 9AM - 3PM

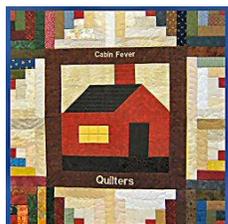

The Lake of the Ozarks Cabin Fever Quilters Guild, founded in 1987, has been holding a quilt show every 3 years during the Camdenton Dogwood Festival, displaying their quilts and quilted items. Each year the quilters learn new techniques, share ideas and expertise, hold an annual Tea with a special guest speaker, donate quilted items for local charities and/or organizations in areas that have suffered a local or regional disaster.

What makes this guild special is it's members who love the art of quilting in various quilting forms, have diverse backgrounds, and enjoy sharing and learning from each other. Their creations are always appear unique and cover an array of techniques and patterns.

The quilters will have special displays of their past 3 year projects such as 'One Block Wonder', 'Storybook Quilts', 'My Home State', 'Quilts of Valor', plus special quilts from their past members and their personal antique quilt collection.
